

Associate Director Biography

Bringing joy through harmony...

Elaine Haugan

Associate Certified Director

Elaine has been singing and performing since her childhood. She majored in vocal music at Palm Beach Atlantic University right here in West Palm Beach. She is a charter/founding member of Women of Note, with prior memberships in Song of Atlanta Chorus, Royal Palm Chorus, and Spirit of the Gulf Chorus, all international competitors. With 43 years of Barbershop experience, Elaine has also sung in many award-winning quartets, achieving 12th place at the international level in 2005 with Fireworks! She has directed the Platinum Show Chorus in Melbourne, FL, which placed as most improved chorus in the region in 2017. As Associate Director of Women of Note, Elaine assists in vocal training for the chorus members, is a member of the Tenor section, and directs the chorus in the director's absence.
